

COMMERCIAL VEHICLE D.O.T. COMPLIANCE AND AUDIT SEMINAR

FRIDAY, MARCH 10, 2017

The best way to pass a DOT audit is to be certain you are in compliance in the first place. Therefore you need to know what regulations you are subject to and what records the DOT expects. This one day seminar is taught by FMCSA Compliance Specialist, Brian Bullard, and he will give you a step-by-step guide for DOT compliance and audit preparation.

Summary: The seminar will teach maintenance and regulation standards, as well as best practices to help carriers avoid, prepare for, and pass a DOT audit including:

- Commercial vehicle definition and requirements
- Driver Qualifications and Vehicle Maintenance files
- Drug and Alcohol testing
- Hours of Service
- CSA, accident control, insurance and much more...

Whether you are a seasoned trucking veteran who needs a refresher on the rules or you are relatively new person who needs to better understand the rules, this class is for you. Brian will not only teach you what is required by rule but also give you the opportunity to go over any possible questions or concerns specific to your company.
